Article 2-1: The Company may provide external guarantees.

Article 2-2: The Company's total external investment may exceed forty percent (40%) of its paid-in capital.

Article 3: The Company's head office is established in Taipei City. Where necessary the Company may establish branch companies domestically or overseas subject to the resolution by its Board of Directors and the approval of the competent authority.

Chapter II Shares

Article 4: The total capital of the Company shall be in the amount of NT$4 billion divided into 400 million shares to be raised in multiple issues at NT$10 per share.

An additional NT$200 million shall be reserved from the total capital as specified in Paragraph 1 for the issuance of employee stock options issuable in 20 million shares at NT$10 per share over multiple installments in accordance with the Board of Directors resolution.

Before issuing any employee stock options at a strike price lower than the closing price of the Company's stocks on the date of issuance, the Company shall first obtain the agreement of at least two-thirds of the voting rights present at the shareholders' meeting attended by shareholders representing a majority of total issued shares, and may issue the stock options in installments within a year of the date of resolution in the shareholders' meeting. Other conditions or restrictions on employee stock options issued in accordance with the provisions described above shall be processed in accordance with related laws and regulations.

Before transferring shares to employees at a price lower than the average of the actual repurchase price, the Company shall first obtain the agreement of at least two-thirds of the voting rights present at the most recent shareholders' meeting attended by shareholders representing a majority of total issued shares.

Article 5: Stocks of the Company shall be registered, signed or sealed by at least three Directors. The stocks shall be issued after proper certification by the competent authority or its authorized registration institutes. Stocks issued by the Company are not required to be printed. The Company, however, shall contact the centralized securities depository enterprise institution for registration or depository of the share certificates for the stocks or shares issued in accordance with this Paragraph.

Article 6: The Company shall administer all the stock-related operations in accordance with the "Regulations Governing the Administration of Shareholder Services of Public Companies" promulgated by the competent authority. The competent authority may request consolidated issuance of securities with large nominal value.

Chapter III Shareholders' Meeting

Article 7: Registration for the transfer of shares shall be suspended for 60 days before a general shareholders' meeting, for 30 days before an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, and for 5 days before the baseline date for distributing dividends, bonus or other benefits. The above periods shall be calculated from the date of the meeting or the baseline date.

Article 8: The Company holds general and provisional shareholders' meetings. A general meeting is convened once a year within six months after the end of a fiscal year. Extraordinary meetings are convened when necessary in accordance with the law. The shareholders' meeting shall be held in accordance with the Company's "Rules and Procedures for Shareholders' Meetings."

Article 9: All shareholders shall be informed of the meeting and agenda 30 days before a general meeting or 15 days before an extraordinary meeting is convened.

Article 10: A shareholder, if unable to attend the shareholders' meeting, may appoint a proxy to attend on the shareholder's behalf by executing a power of attorney and stating therein the scope of power authorized to the proxy. The authorization shall be processed in accordance with Article 177 of the Company Act.

Article 11: A shareholders' meeting convened by the Board of Directors shall be chaired by the Chairman. If the Chairman is on leave or unable to exercise powers, the acting chair shall be selected in accordance with Article 208, Paragraph 3 of the Company Act. If a shareholders' meeting is convened by an individual with the right to convene a meeting but who is not a member of the Board of Directors, the said individual shall chair the meeting. If two or more individuals have the right to convene the meeting, one shall be elected from those eligible to chair the meeting.

Article 12: Unless otherwise regulated by the Company Act, a shareholders' meeting resolution shall be passed when more than 50% of all outstanding shares are represented in the meeting, and voted in favor by more than 50% of all voting rights represented at the meeting.

Article 12-1: A proposal to cancel the public issuance of the Company's shares shall be filed for a resolution in the shareholders' meeting.

Article 13: Each shareholder of the Company shall be entitled to one vote for each share. No voting power shall be granted, however, to Company shares prescribed in Article 179 of the Company Act.

Article 14: Shareholders' meeting resolutions shall be compiled into minutes with details including the date and place of the meeting, the name of Chairman, method of resolution, and a summary of the essential points of meeting proceedings and results. The minutes shall be signed or sealed by the Chair. The minutes described in the previous paragraph shall be retained by the Company along with the attendance cards and power of attorney letters for proxies of shareholders in attendance. The minutes shall be distributed to each shareholder within 20 days of the meeting. The minutes may be distributed in announcements.

Chapter IV Directors

Article 15: The Company shall appoint nine to thirteen Directors who shall be elected from among the shareholders with capacity at the shareholders' meeting in accordance with the provisions stipulated in Articles 198 and 227 of the Company Act to serve terms of three years each; directors may serve consecutive terms. The election of Directors is held by nomination in accordance with Article 192-1 of the Company Act, and the shareholders shall vote on the list of candidates. Unless otherwise approved by the competent authority, the following relations may not exist among more than half of the directors of the Company.

I. A spousal relationship.

II. Familial relationship within the second degree of kinship.

Article 15-1: The Company shall appoint three Independent Directors among the Directors of the Board in accordance with Article 14-2 of the Securities and Exchange Act and in compliance with Article 183 of the Securities and Exchange Act. The selection of Independent Directors shall be conducted in accordance with the candidate nomination system prescribed in Article 192-1 of the Company Act.

The Company shall assemble an Audit Committee in accordance with Article 14-4 and Article 183 of the Securities and Exchange Act. The Committee shall be solely composed of Independent Directors.

Article 16: The Directors shall form a Board of Directors, under which functional committees with various duties and purposes may be established. The Chairman of the Board shall be elected from among those present by a majority vote at a Board meeting with more than two-thirds of the directors present. A Vice Chairman may be elected to assist the Chairman. The Chairman is the Chair of the Board of Directors and represents the Company in conducting all affairs. If the Chairman is on leave or unable to exercise his/her duties for whatever reason, a proxy shall be selected in accordance with Article 208, Paragraph 3 of the Company Act.

Article 17: A Board meeting may be convened through written, email or facsimile notification that states the reason for the meeting to each Director and Supervisor at least seven days before the meeting date. A meeting of the Board of Directors may be convened at any time in the event of an emergency. Directors who participate in meetings via video conferencing shall be deemed to have personally attended the meeting. The Board of Directors meeting shall be held in accordance with the Company's "Rules and Procedures for Board of Directors Meetings." If a Director is unable to attend a Board meeting, he/she may appoint a proxy to attend the meeting by completing the Company's proxy form and specifying the scope of delegation. Any proxy prescribed in the preceding paragraph, however, shall only represent one Director in the meeting.

Article 18: Unless otherwise provided for under the Company Act, resolutions of the Board of Directors shall be approved by majority vote at a meeting attended by a majority of the Directors.

Article 19: Remuneration for the Chairman and Directors shall be determined by their level of participation in the Company's operations and the value of their contribution as well as their personal performance and the Company's long-term operating performance while taking into account the Company's operating risks and the industry's prevailing rates in the domestic and international markets.

The Board of Directors is authorized to determine the remuneration. The Company may purchase liability insurance for Directors.

Chapter V Managers

Article 20: The Company may appoint a Chief Executive Officer following a resolution in the Board of Directors meeting to oversee the business operations and strategies of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Company shall also appoint a President whose appointment, dismissal, and remuneration shall be governed by Article 29 of the Company Act.

Chapter VI Accounting

Article 21: The Company's fiscal year begins on January 1 and ends on December 31 of every year.

The fiscal year shall end on the last day of the Gregorian calendar and the Board shall prepare the following documents and submit them to the Audit Committee for review before ratification in the General Shareholders' Meeting.

(I) Business report.

(II) Financial Statements.

(III) Distribution of earnings or loss offsetting proposals.

Article 22: In response to the overall economy and the characteristics of industry growth and in compliance with the Company's long-term financial plans for sustainable operations and stable development, the Company adopts a residual dividend policy. The policy mainly assesses the annual funding requirements based on the Company's future capital budget plans and retains required funding from earnings before distributing remaining earnings as dividend. The distribution procedures are as follows:

(I) The optimal capital budget is determined.

(II) The amount of capital required to satisfy the capital budget in paragraph (I) is determined.

(III) The amount of funding required for financing to be supported by the retained earnings (the remaining can be supported through cash capital increase or corporate bonds etc.) is determined.

(IV) An appropriate amount of the remaining earnings shall be retained in accordance with operational requirements before distributing dividends to shareholders.

The Company distributes dividends through cash or stocks and cash dividends are prioritized. If dividends are distributed in stocks, the stock dividends shall not exceed 50% of the total dividends issued in the current year. The distribution of dividends may be dependent on the Company's current and future investment environment, funding requirements, domestic and foreign competition, and capital budgets while taking into consideration shareholder interests, balanced dividends, and the Company's long-term financial plans. Where a plan to distribute stock dividends is in place, the Board of Directors shall formulate relevant proposals in accordance with the law and report to the shareholders' meeting for discussion and resolution.

For the distribution of the preceding surplus, if the distribution is in cash, the Board of Directors shall be authorized to resolve the proposal by at least half of the directors, provided the number of directors present shall be at least two-thirds of the entire Board of Directors, and report to the shareholders' meeting of the distribution.

The company may distribute all or part of the reserve in accordance with laws or the regulations of the competent authority. If it is distributed in cash, it authorizes the board of directors to make resolutions in accordance with Article 241 of the Company Act and report to the shareholders' meeting.

Article 23: In the event the Company makes a profit during the fiscal year it shall set aside no less than 0.1% of the profits for employee remuneration. The remuneration for Directors shall be no higher than 2%. However, priority shall be given to reservation of funds for compensation of cumulative losses, if any.

The preceding employee remuneration may be paid in cash or shares, and shall be payable to employees of subsidiary companies who meet the requirements stipulated by the Board of Directors. Remuneration of directors as specified above may be distributed in cash only.

The procedures in the two preceding paragraphs shall be approved by the Board of Directors and reported to the shareholders' meeting.

Article 23-1: Any net income after taxes at final accounting of the current period shall be used to compensate cumulative losses while 10% of net income after taxes shall be allocated as statutory reserve according to the law, except when the cumulative statutory reserve has reached the Company's paid-in capital. The balance shall then be allocated or reversed as special reserve in accordance with regulatory requirements, it shall be handled in accordance with relevant regulations.

Chapter VII Supplementary Provisions
